

Croatia 2025

September 14th — September 21st, 2025

Legend ▾

Boat

Split, Croatia - Sep 14, 2025

Day 1: Split

 Split

Day 1: Split

Split Embarkation 2pm (unpack and settle)

crew

Stroll along the Riva, a seafront promenade full of cafes and bars, or hike the highest point in Park Suma Marjan to take in the expansive and magnificent view from Vrh Telegrin.

"Flavors of Croatia" dinner on the ship with fellow passengers.

Tonight, we relax -- star gazing in the hot tub, or dance to the Mediterranean rhythms in Old Town. Overnight in Split.

Welcome drink and kickoff meeting to introduce the captain and

Trogir, Croatia - Sep 15, 2025

Day 2: Trogir

 Trogir

Day 2: Trogir

Private guided tour of Split through historical sites including the Diocletian's Palace, a World Heritage Site since 1979.

Lunch and a swim en route to Trogir, which is on the UNESCO's World Heritage List featuring a remarkable display of Medieval architecture with an original historic Roman city layout of orthogonal streets with very minimal modern interventions.

Climb the bell tower of St Lawrence's Cathedral for a panoramic view of this quaint town.

Dinner on your own in town. Overnight in Trogir.

Zlatni rat, Croatia - Sep 16, 2025

Day 3: Zlatni Rat

 Zlatni rat

Day 3: Zlatni Rat

Morning sail toward Bol, one of the Adriatic's most famous seaside resorts. Take a dip at Croatia's best-known beach, Zlatni Rat—a uniquely shaped white pebble beach.

Extended swim stop within the Pakleni Islands on the way to Hvar, with the possibility of jet skiing, or a speedboat ride to nearby secluded beaches and coves.

Walk Hvar and learn about its rich history and culture. Hvar is a popular tourist destination and considered to be Europe's sunniest island.

Ascend a winding path to the Spanish Fortress for a breathtaking sunset view of the harbor.

Dinner on your own in town. Overnight in Hvar.

Hvar, Croatia - Sep 16, 2025

Biševo, Croatia - Sep 17, 2025

Day 4: Biševo

Day 4: Biševo

VIP experience of the Blue Cave of Island Biševo—sunlight through the water reflects from the limestone floor of the cave, bathing the grotto in brilliant blue light. Take a small boat into the cave's narrow entrance and emerge within the magnificent, yet eerie, glowing blue cavern—a must-see for visitors of the Croatian coastline.

Visit Vis, a town left untouched by the development of tourism—the island contains beautiful beaches, preserved nature, ecological agriculture, and traditional architecture.

Optional tours: Military tour, or speedboat to Green Cave and Stiniva Beach.

Enjoy cocktails and a commanding sunset view from former British naval fortification built in 1813 (Fort George).

Tonight, we treat you to a Peka Dinner in town (wine included).
Overnight in Vis.

● Vis, Croatia - Sep 17, 2025

● Korčula, Croatia - Sep 18, 2025

Day 5: Korcula

Day 5: Korcula

Midday swim on way to Korcula, thought to be the birthplace of Marco Polo. Lunch onboard.

Guided tour of Korcula Town, or “Little Dubrovnik” as locals know it. It showcases medieval squares, churches and palaces.

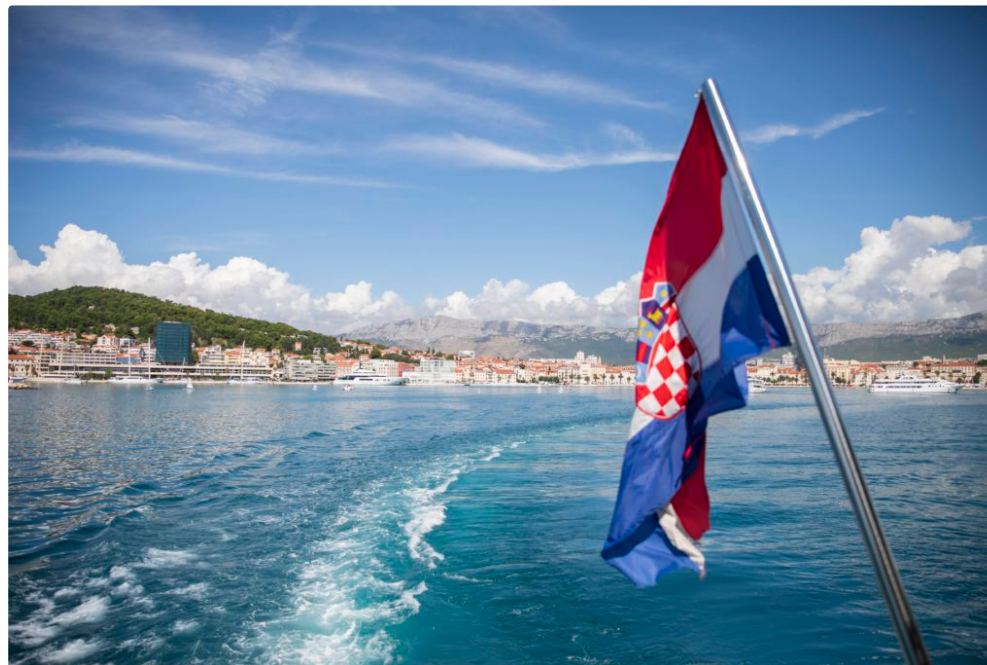

Have pre-dinner cocktails in an original medieval tower along the city's walls.

Dinner on your own in town. Overnight in Korcula.

Nacionalni park Mljet, Croatia - Sep 19, 2025

Day 6: Mljet National Park

 Nacionalni park Mljet

Day 6: Mljet National Park

Enjoy Mljet National Park and explore the island's hiking trails, bike paths, canoeing waterways, and a boat to Islet of St. Mary, with its 12th century monastery.

Swim in the park's two saltwater lakes — Veliko and Malo Jezero.

Tonight, we party. It is our “Mamma Mia Sailors” Captain's dinner on board in a secluded cove near Šipanska Luka.

Overnight on anchorage.

Šipanska Luka, Croatia - Sep 19, 2025

Dubrovnik, Croatia - Sep 20, 2025

Day 7: Dubrovnik

 Dubrovnik

Day 7: Dubrovnik

Morning swim while on anchorage. Sail to Dubrovnik, passing its preserved medieval city walls and fortifications.

Private guided tour of historical city center of Dubrovnik. We will have an opportunity to traverse the city and take a cable car to the top of Mt. Srd for breathtaking views.

A free evening to explore the nightlife in Dubrovnik's Old Town.

Dinner on your own. Overnight at Dubrovnik Gruz Harbor.

Gruž, Croatia - Sep 21, 2025

Day 8: Gruz

Day 8: Gruz

Wake up one last time on the beautiful blue waters of Croatia, in an undeniably gorgeous city that's known as the Pearl of the Adriatic.

One final group breakfast on board.

Hugs and kisses all around, as you depart for home...or on to your next adventure!

